2 DATE OF OPERATION

- 2.1 This Agreement will remain in force until 31 October 2026, its nominal expiry date and shall continue to apply beyond its nominal expiry date until replaced or terminated, in accordance with the Act.

3 APPLICATION OF AGREEMENT

- 3.1 This Agreement applies to R & C Drainage Solutions Pty Ltd (the Employer), all Employees of the Employer for whom classifications and rates of pay are provided by this Agreement (the Employee(s)), and the Communications, Electrical, Electronic, Energy, Information, Postal, Plumbing and Allied Services Union of Australia, (Union).
- 3.2 This Agreement recognises the Union as a legitimate bargaining representative of the Employees covered by this Agreement.
- 3.3 This Agreement also applies to prefabrication work performed on or off site. Employees engaged in prefabrication off site are entitled to all benefits and allowances provided in this Agreement, except for the multistorey and site allowances. For the avoidance of doubt, in accordance with clause 33.30, where an Employee is normally required to report for and finish work at the workshop and is transported to and from any job by their Employer, no allowance will be paid.
- 3.4 This Agreement does not apply to:
- 3.4.1 Employees engaged as sprinkler fitter workers or sprinkler Fitter tradespersons under the Award.
- 3.4.2 Employees exclusively engaged in maintenance or service work, provided that Employees primarily engaged on maintenance and/ or service work may agree to be covered by this Agreement for a short period of time (i.e. up to a maximum of one continuous block of three weeks duration) where such Employees are engaged on a construction site.
- 3.5 This Agreement only applies to work performed in Queensland and to work performed outside Queensland by Employees who are based in Queensland.

- 3.6 This Agreement does not apply where a project agreement applies. For the avoidance of doubt, this Agreement applies where there is no project-specific agreement.

4 PARTIES BOUND AND COVERED

- 4.1 This Agreement legally binds and covers the Union, the Employer and their Employees engaged in classifications contained within this Agreement.

5 RELATIONSHIP TO OTHER DOCUMENTS

- 5.1 This Agreement is intended to be interpreted in conjunction with the NES, the Award and the terms of QIRC Order (No. B585 of 2003) Apprentices' and Trainees' Wages and Conditions (Excluding certain Queensland Government entities) 2003 and QIRC Order (No. B1849 of 1997) Supply of tools to apprentices.
- 5.2 Where this Agreement is silent, the terms of the above documents, as amended from time to time, apply.
- 5.3 Where there is conflict between a term of this Agreement and a term of any other document(s) or instrument(s) mentioned in this clause, or a conflict between two or more terms of this Agreement, the higher wage outcome, or other outcome more favourable to the Employee, applies.

6 NO EXTRA CLAIMS

- 6.1 The rates of pay and allowances provided in this Agreement apply to all Employees covered by this Agreement.
- 6.2 This Agreement settles all bargaining and other claims for the life of the Agreement. There will be no extra claims made by the Employer, Union, or Employees for the duration of this Agreement.
- 6.3 This clause does not prevent the Employer from seeking a variation to this Agreement, pursuant to the Act, to make it compliant with the Code for the Tendering and Performance of Building Work 2016, or other applicable building and construction Code(s).

7 NEGOTIATION OF NEW AGREEMENT

- 7.1 The parties will commence negotiations for an agreement to replace this Agreement no less than 3 months before the nominal expiry date of this Agreement. Further the employer consents to the Union conducting pre-survey, claim endorsement and negotiation report back meetings, following each bargaining meeting, of all sites, on paid time and local management will cooperate to ensure that meetings occur in a mutually convenient but timely manner.

- 7.2 The parties agree that structured, collective industrial relations will continue as a fundamental principle of the business. The principle recognises the important role that Employees' membership of a Union has in maintaining a stable, safe and efficient workplace. This positive approach to industrial relations has traditionally been implemented by Employees being members of the Union and being represented by the Union in industrial negotiations. The parties agree to promote this approach into the future.

- 11.2 Where the Employer wants to enter into an IFA it must provide a written proposal to the Employee. Where the Employee's understanding of written English is limited, the Employer must take measures, including translation into an appropriate language, to ensure the Employee understands the proposal.

- 11.3 The Employer must ensure that any IFA is genuinely agreed to by the Employer and the Employee and that the terms of the IFA:

11.3.1 are about permitted matters under section 172 of the Act;

11.3.2 are not unlawful terms under section 194 of the Act;

11.3.3 result in the Employee being better off overall than the Employee would be if no IFA was made;

11.3.4 do not result in a reduction in health and safety at work; and

11.3.5 relate only to:

11.3.5.1 time between which ordinary hours are worked;

11.3.5.2 salary sacrifice agreements; or

11.3.5.3 a reduction in ordinary hours.

Participation by the Union (or any other representative) does not mean that their consent is required prior to reaching agreement in relation to an IFA.
- 11.9 No IFA agreed to under this Agreement may operate retrospectively.
- 11.10 The Employer will provide an Employee Representative with details of any or all IFAs agreed to in accordance with the provisions of this clause if reasonably requested to do so. A request will be reasonable if the request relates to the Employee representative's role in representing Employees covered by the Agreement.
- 11.11 For the avoidance of doubt, except in relation to clause 11.4.3 where this concerns parents and guardians of Employees who are less than 18 years of age, nothing in this Agreement requires any IFA agreed to by the Employer and Employee under this Agreement to be approved, or consented to, by another person.

12 SEVERABILITY

- 12.1 It is the intention of those covered by the Agreement that the Agreement contains only permitted matters under the Act. The severance of any term of this Agreement that is, in whole or in part, of no effect owing to the operation of section 253 of the Act, shall not be taken to affect the binding force and effect of the remainder of the Agreement.

BREAKS BETWEEN WORKING DAYS

- 41.8 An Employee is entitled to a break of least 10 consecutive hours off duty between completion of overtime, weekend work or work on public holidays, and recommencement of their next ordinary working day. - 41.9 Where the Employer requires the Employee to recommence work before they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty, the Employee will be paid at double time rates until they cease work. The Employee will then be entitled to be absent until they have had 10 consecutive hours off duty without loss of pay for ordinary working time occurring during such absence.
- 41.10 The parties agree the 10-hour break is important for the purposes of fatigue management. Accordingly, for the purposes of calculating when the 10-hour commences the “completion of overtime” referred to in clause 41.8 shall include the travel time the Employee takes to return to their normal place of residence or accommodation.

- 43.5 When an Employee is rostered to work 2 or more hours overtime the Employee is entitled to a paid rest break of 20 minutes immediately after ordinary hours ceasing time. Where this break is not taken, the 20 minutes will be added to the total overtime worked and paid accordingly.

- 43.8 The Employees and Employer may agree to one 30-minute paid break in lieu of all other rest breaks and meal breaks, provided that no Employee will work more than 4 hours without a break.

WORKING DURING MEAL BREAK

- 43.9 If the Employer requires an Employee to work through their normal meal break, the Employee will be paid at the rate of double-time until they are allowed to take that break. Where the meal break is shortened by agreement, the Employer will pay for the period by which the meal break is shortened, which will then form part of ordinary time hours. The amounts in this Agreement reflect the current differential in rates between all classifications (including plumber and gasfitter and licensed drainer) in this Agreement, and the carpenter classification in the National Building and Construction Industry Agreement 2000. The parties have agreed that the differential between a licensed plumber or a mechanical plumber engaged in pipe work shall be 6.2% in favour of a plumber over a carpenter, although this relativity is discounted by 1% to 5.2% by the introduction of a Services Trades Industry Levy pursuant to this Agreement. This Agreement will maintain this differential by providing for an annual increase to wages

In determining the appropriate classification/ reclassification of a position or job to be filled by an Employee, the Employer will give full regard to:
