

About the Form F17A declaration

Employer's declaration in support of an application for approval of an enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) – notification time before 6 June 2023

When to use this form

Enterprise agreements are agreements made at the enterprise level that contain terms and conditions of employment.

The Fair Work Commission (the Commission) assesses and approves enterprise agreements (agreements). It can also assist in the process of making agreements and can deal with disputes arising under an agreement. Before the Commission can approve an agreement, it must be satisfied that the agreement meets the requirements for approval set out in the Fair Work Act 2009, including that the employees will be 'better off overall' under the agreement than they would be if the relevant award applied.

This form provides information to assist the Commission to determine whether to approve an enterprise agreement.

Giving false or misleading information is a serious offence.

A person who knowingly gives false or misleading information or knowingly produces a false or misleading document in support of an application for approval of an enterprise agreement is guilty of an offence, the punishment for which is imprisonment for up to 12 months – see s.137.1 and s.137.2 of the Criminal Code.

This form can be used if:

- a Form F16 – Application for approval of an enterprise agreement \(other than a greenfields agreement\) has been or is being lodged with the Commission, and
- the notification time for the enterprise agreement was before 6 June 2023.

If the enterprise agreement is a single enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) with a notification time on or after 6 June 2023, you will need to use Form F17B.

If the enterprise agreement is a multi-enterprise agreement (other than a greenfields agreement) with a notification time on or after 6 June 2023, you will need to use Form F17C.

On 6 June 2023, changes were made to the Fair Work Act 2009 that affect how the Commission determines whether employees have genuinely agreed to an enterprise agreement. These changes do not apply if the notification time for the agreement was before 6 June 2023. For this reason, some questions in this form include links to the version of the Fair Work Act 2009 that applied immediately before 6 June 2023.

When is the notification time?

The notification time is when bargaining for the enterprise agreement started. Bargaining starts when:

- the employer agrees to bargain, or initiates bargaining, for the agreement
- the employer receives a request to bargain under s.173(2A) of the Fair Work Act in relation to the agreement
- a majority support determination in relation to the agreement comes into operation
- a scope order in relation to the agreement comes into operation, or
- a low-paid authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation.

If a supported bargaining authorisation or single interest employer authorisation in relation to the agreement that specifies the employer comes into operation on or after 6 June 2023, this can also commence bargaining. You will need to use Form F17C if bargaining for the enterprise agreement commenced in this way.

Who can use this form

Use this form if you are an employer that is covered by the agreement (or an officer or authorised employee completing this form for an employer).

Notify employees through the employer's usual means for communicating with its employees.

This is important for the Commission to be able to determine whether or not your agreement satisfies the legislative requirements for approval.

Part 2.1 – The better off overall test

See s.186(2)(d) and s.193 of the Fair Work Act 2009.

See s.173 of the Fair Work Act 2009 as at 26 March 2023 and the prescribed notice of employee representational rights in Schedule 2.1 of the Fair Work Regulations 2009. The employer must take all reasonable steps to give the prescribed notice to each employee who will be covered by the agreement and is employed at the notification time for the agreement. The employer must give the prescribed notice as soon as practicable, and not later than 14 days, after the notification time.

You must lodge a copy of the notice given to employees with this form.

Describe each step taken and state the date on which it was taken.
If multiple notices were provided, explain why.

Describe how employees were given the information about the time and place at which the vote was to occur and the voting method to be used. For example, describe information given during meetings, by email or post, and on noticeboards. Include the date each of these steps were taken.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were provided to employees to notify them about the vote.

Do not simply state that the relevant employees were notified by the specified time.

- b. had access to a copy of the above materials throughout the access period?

See s.180(2)(a) of the Fair Work Act 2009 as at 26 March 2023. The employer must take all reasonable steps to ensure relevant employees are given or have access to the

Examples of employees whose circumstances and needs are to be taken into account include employees from non-English speaking backgrounds, young employees and employees who don’t have a bargaining representative.

Identify the relevant group of employees addressed and their particular circumstances (for example employees from a non-English speaking background or young employees). Describe the steps you took to accommodate their circumstances. Write down the date on which each step was taken.

Also lodge copies of any materials that were used to ensure the explanation to employees was provided in an appropriate manner (if not lodged in response to question 23).

Information sheet

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a lawyer or paid agent, or an employee of an employer organisation) speaks or acts on a person’s behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

There are some restrictions on representation by a lawyer or paid agent.

Generally, a person must give notice to the Commission (by lodging a Form F53 – Notice that a person: (a) has a lawyer or paid agent or (b) will seek permission for lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing) and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with the matter if they wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent them by participating in a conference or a hearing.

Apart from participating in a conference or hearing, a person’s lawyer or paid agent can represent them without permission, unless the Commission decides otherwise. For example, the lawyer or paid agent can prepare and lodge written applications, responses and submissions with the Commission, and communicate in writing with the Commission and other parties to the matter on the person’s behalf.

The requirement to give notice and seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing, does not apply if the lawyer or paid agent is:

- an employee or officer of the person or
- a bargaining representative that is representing the person or
- an employee or officer of an employee or employer organisation, or an association of employers or a peak council, that is representing the person.

Rule 13(2) of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 sets out further exceptions to the requirement to give notice and seek permission.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 and the Commission’s practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.

Glossary of common terms

Applicant – This is the person or organisation making an application.

Better off overall test - The better off overall test requires the Commission to be satisfied, as at the time the application for approval of the agreement by the Commission was made, that each award covered employee, and each reasonably foreseeable employee would be better off overall under the agreement than under the relevant modern award.
