Application for the FWC to deal with a bargaining dispute

Who can use this form

Use this form if you are a bargaining representative for a proposed enterprise agreement, and the proposed agreement is:

- a single-enterprise agreement
- a supported bargaining agreement, or
- a multi-enterprise agreement in relation to which a single interest employer authorisation is in operation.

and you want the Fair Work Commission (the Commission) to deal with a bargaining dispute. You can make this application whether or not the other bargaining representatives for the agreement have agreed to the making of the application.

You may also use this form if the proposed agreement is a cooperative workplaces agreement with the agreement of all the bargaining representatives.

About bargaining disputes

The Fair Work Act 2009 (Fair Work Act) allows a bargaining representative for a proposed enterprise agreement of the kind described above to apply to the Commission to deal with a bargaining dispute if the bargaining representatives are unable to resolve it (s.240).

The Commission can deal with the dispute as it considers appropriate, including by mediation, conciliation, making a recommendation or expressing an opinion (s.595(2)). The Commission can only arbitrate the dispute if the bargaining representatives have agreed that the Commission may arbitrate (s.240(4)).

Associated applications

The Commission can only make an intractable bargaining declaration under section 235 of the Fair Work Act:

- if the applicant for the declaration has participated in dispute resolution processes conducted by the Commission to deal with a bargaining dispute under section 240 and there is no reasonable prospect of agreement being reached (s.235(2)(a) and (b)), and
- it is after the end of the minimum bargaining period (which is 9 months after the later of the nominal expiry date of any existing agreement and the day bargaining starts for the proposed agreement) (s 235(1)(c)).

Legal or other representation

Representation is where another person (such as a lawyer or paid agent, an officer or employee of a union, employer organisation or employer association, or a peak council) speaks or acts on a person's behalf, or assists a person in certain other ways in relation to a matter before the Commission. There is no requirement to be represented at the Commission.

There are some restrictions on representation by a lawyer or paid agent.

Generally, a person must give notice to the Commission (by lodging a Form F53 – Notice that a person: (a) has a lawyer or a paid agent; or (b) will seek permission for lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing) and seek permission from the Commission Member dealing with the matter if they wish to have a lawyer or paid agent represent them by participating in a conference or a hearing.

Apart from participating in a conference or hearing, a person’s lawyer or paid agent can represent them without permission, unless the Commission decides otherwise. For example, the lawyer or paid agent can prepare and lodge written applications, responses and submissions with the Commission, and communicate in writing with the Commission and other parties to the matter on the person’s behalf.

The requirement to give notice and seek permission for a lawyer or paid agent to participate in a conference or hearing, does not apply if the lawyer or paid agent is:

- an employee or officer of the person or
- a bargaining representative that is representing the person or
- an employee or officer of an employee or employer organisation, or an association of employers or a peak council, that is representing the person.

Rule 13(2) of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 sets out further exceptions to the requirement to give notice and seek permission.

For more information about representation by lawyers and paid agents, see section 596 of the Fair Work Act 2009, rules 11, 12, 13 and 14 of the Fair Work Commission Rules 2024 and the Commission’s practice note on representation by lawyers and paid agents.
