Dear Associate

We refer to the correspondence below.

While the CFMMEU does not resile from its position regarding undertakings, we did not understand the Vice President's order to require any such undertakings be given. We note the correspondence of 28 November indicates that access to documents is only "subject to the implied Harman undertaking." Our proposed order has been drafted to reflect that.

We note that our document is titled Directions, but we do not intend to draw any distinction between Directions and Orders. We seek that our proposed orders be made as either Directions or Orders.

Kind regards

Jessica Dawson-Field

Dear Associate

The parties have been unable to agree on a draft order as to access.

I have attached the Applicant's proposed draft order and schedule "A" thereto for the Commission's consideration.

The Applicant submits that it is appropriate that written undertakings are proffered to the Commission having regard to the correspondence to you from the lawyers for the CFMMEU dated 18.11.22, 23.11.22 and 25.11.22 as well as what was submitted at paragraph [23] of the CFMMEU submissions dated 16.11.22 and what was said at PN 582 of the transcript dated 17.11.22 by Senior Counsel for the CFMMEU.

The Applicant further submits that access be the subject of an Order of the Commission not Directions as now proposed by the CFMMEU.

The lawyers for the CFMMEU have been copied into this email.

OFFICIAL

Dear parties,

I confirm the documents have been produced in the Sydney registry of the Commission pursuant to the order dated 18 November 2022.

The Acting President grants access to the documents to the two identified CFMMEU internal lawyers subject to the implied Harman undertaking. The parties are directed to provide a draft order as to access (including how copying is to occur) by email to these chambers.

Kind regards,
Caroline
